We Cannot Forget

The Democracy are exceedingly indignant because in the present political campaign, they are accused of having been disloyal during the rebellion, and having been ready to acquiesce in, if they did not positively desire, the dissolution of the Union.

It is within easy recollection that during the whole war, the Democratic party clamored for peace. "PEACE," and "PEACE on any terms" was the slogan of the party. From the New York World, which demanded a cessation of hostilities and a Convention of the States to hit upon some arrangement to placate the rebels, down to the Pike County Democrat, (then edited by the person who now edits the Oregon Herald) which demanded that the war be stopped and the South "allowed to go in peace," there was a universal opposition to the further employment of force to bring the rebels into submission. The same spirit ruled in the Chicago Convention of 1864, and made its appearance in unmistakable terms in the platform that was there adopted. Peace at that time, on the Democratic idea, meant SEPARATION and nothing else. In the conference at Hampton Roads the rebel Commissioners declared that they would listen to no terms of peace that did not first grant the "independence of the Confederacy." What then, did the Democratic party mean by their clamors for peace? NOTHING LESS THAN THE SEPARATION OF THE STATES AND THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF SOUTHERN INDEPENDENCE.

The Democratic party will never be able to clear itself of the charge, nay, of the infamous fact, of its complicity with the rebellion. To the Democracy of the North, the rebels looked with eager anxiety for a demonstration in their favor—that is to say, in favor of immediate and unconditional peace. On this point we have indisputable Southern authority, which even the Democratic party must acknowledge as valid. Pollard of Richmond, who wrote a Southern history of the war, says that the rebel authorities, as well as the whole people of the South watched anxiously the development of the "peace sentiment" of the North. The rebels exerted themselves in 1864 to the utmost, to strengthen the Democratic party by defeating the national armies in the field. In the beginning of the eighth chapter of his last volume, Pollard says: "THE MILITARY SUCCESSES WHICH THE YANKEES ACHIEVED DURING THE TWO OR THREE MONTHS PRECEDING SECURED THE RE-ELECTION OF MR. LINCOLN ON THE 8TH OF NOVEMBER."

Of the real animus and aims of the Chicago Convention, Pollard writes:

> Despite the professions of attachment to the Union by the Convention, there is little doubt that the real programme of its operations, had, for its final conclusion, the acknowledgment of the independence of the Confederate States.
>
> It was proposed to get at this conclusion by distinct and successive steps, so as not to alarm too much the Union sentiment of the country. The first step was to the proposition of "the Union as it was," in the Convention of the States; if that was voted down, then the proposition of a new principle of federation, limited to the foreign relations and the revenue. If that was rejected, the proposition of an Inter-Confederate Union, to preserve, as far as possible by extraordinary league, the American prestige, and if all these propositions intended as successive tests of the spirit of the South, were to fail, then at last the independence of the Confederate States, sine qua non, was to be conceded by the Democratic party of the North as the last resort of pacification. IN SHORT IT APPEARED TO BE THE DESIGN OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY TO GET THE NORTH ON THE NAKED ISSUE OF WAR AND SEPARATION.
> Why this programme broke down, is explained almost in a word. The military events that fell next the Chicago Convention, PUT UPON THE WAR A MORE ENCOURAGING ASPECT FOR THE NORTH.

Here is the whole history of the purposes of the Democratic party of the North, related by one who was in secret league with the Democratic leaders. It is notorious that the Chicago platform of 1864 was framed at the dictation of the rebels in Canada. Sanders, Tucker, Clay and others were consulted about the platform, and their views as to what would best suit the rebel Government, were embodied in it. Secretary Seward says that the proofs of this fact are incontrovertible.

The hopes of the rebels for McClellan's success in the election, fled with the announcement of Federal victories. Of the fall of Atlanta, the Richmond Examiner said:

> On that day the nomination of McClellan fell still born, and an heir was born to the Abolition dynasty.

Why, if the Democratic party was thoroughly loyal, should a victory for the national arms have been as disastrous to it as it was ruinous to the prospects of the traitor's cause? The answer is, the party was not loyal; it was in sympathy with the rebellion, and a blow at the rebels was a blow at the Democracy.

The Democratic organs talk incessantly about the proud record of their party, and yet are offended when their record is truly given. They characterize whatever is said about their position during the war as "a rehearsal of "dead issues." It would be very well to regard them as dead issues were the party which was guided by these disloyal sentiments never again to presume to come before the people urging its claims upon public favor. If it would rest quietly in the grave where its treason once buried it, loyal people would let it rest there, wrapped in the mantle of its imperishable infamy. But when it rises and walks abroad displaying itself in its native hideous deformity, it must be pursued and driven back to the foul shades from whence it has escaped.

We are asked to trust the Democratic party now—to believe its leaders honest men—to confide the jewel of liberty and the Government they once betrayed, to their keeping. VOTERS OF OREGON, shall that party control your State? Is perfidy black and deep, a recommendation to one who seeks the confidence of others? Do former acts of misfeasance in places of high public trust, and an utter abandonment of duties which men have sworn to perform, give promise of future fidelity? If so, the Democracy have the strongest recommendations to popular support. But if recreancy to principle, a violation of pledges, unfaithfulness to the Government and complicity with treason, constitute a reason why the Democratic party should not be entrusted now with the control of the vital interests of the country, then that party deserves to be voted down again at the coming election, as it has been for the last five years. We cannot trust the Democratic party, because WE CANNOT FORGET.

Civil Rights

Our opponents are continually reiterating the charge that under the Civil Rights bill colored persons have all the privileges which white people possess, and not a few go so far as to say that by the bill the rights of negroes are made superior to those of white persons. These assertions, we suppose, are based on the section which provides that "all persons born in the United States shall have equal rights" in respect to certain things, leaving to whites the superior right to do all the voting and office holding. The absurdities which these Copperheads run into, are surpassed by nothing but their miserable dishonesty in presenting things in a false light to the minds of their party friends.

An Anxious Copperhead Answered

DALLES May 20 1866

EDITOR OREGONIAN

I have heard that Woods admits to Col Kelly that the third resolution of the Republican platform means negro suffrage Does it mean that and if it does not what does it mean I know that the Copperheads charge it [illegible] for [illegible] I will support [illegible] platform that does [illegible] is not a candidate [illegible] at least carry out the principles of [illegible] platform [illegible] I shall be here [illegible] days and await your answer

I shall send a duplicate of this to several other papers
Yours JAS L BROWN

We took the above letter from the Post Office in this city on Thursday evening It bore the post mark of "Portland May 24th and was evidently written here and not at the Dalles "Jas L Brown" is no doubt a myth or if "a person now in being" he is unquestionably a Copperhead The letter was written by some person connected with the Democratic party in this city—probably an attache of the Herald office and his artifice in trying to pass himself off as a Union man, is quite too shallow to succeed.

Now as to the inquiry made in the letter In the first place it is not true that Mr Woods admits to Col Kelly that the third resolution of the Republican (Union) platform means negro suffrage Nobody but a dishonest political knave like Kelly or the Copperhead who wrote the above letter, would say that such is its meaning Here is the third resolution

That holding the cardinal principles of the Government to be that the right of representation goes with taxation we desire a full recognition of all civil and political privileges to the inhabitants of the States lately in revolt as soon as compatible with national safety and the protection of the loyal people in those States

This simply means that the people of the States lately in revolt having, by their own acts placed themselves in the situation of alien enemies, and having by their rebellion voluntarily deprived themselves of all civil and political privileges under the Constitution of the United States they shall have these privileges restored to them as soon as compatible with the national safety, and not before These privileges do not belong to them by right; it depends on the pleasure of the Government when they are to be restored And because the Unionists of Oregon magnanimously ask that these rebels shall be forgiven and re-invested with civil and political rights as soon as the public safety will allow it, the Copperheads imagine they "smell a fault," and torture language which is plain and unmistakable in its meaning, out of its only direct and sensible interpretation—vociferating that it "means negro suffrage," when it has no more reference to negro suffrage than to the doctrine of the talmudists The resolution was adopted in view of the peculiar posture of affairs in the South, and was intended to assert that the late rebels (who can have no rights except such as the Government chooses to give them,) should be placed on a civil and political equality with loyal people as soon as the public safety would permit it to be done

'Tis very considerate, indeed, for "Jas L Brown," the mythical, the cunning and the coppery, to propose to wait "ten days" at the Dalles for an answer to the gravely absurd question he propounds He will be compelled to study political artifice and pen-craft for a longer period than ten days before he succeeds in disguising himself effectually, in concealing his purposes, or in masking his Copperheadism

Not Satisfied with Him

It is very evident that the Democrats are not very well satisfied with the President Their organs in this State profess to support him but after the election they will curse him as vehemently as the Confederate Democrat did last winter In the East, the managers of the new party scheme have grown tired of waiting about the doors of the Executive chamber looking for patronage Senator Saulsbury says that "he has grown tired of defending a man who would not show any thankfulness for support" Tom Florence editor of the Constitutional Union and manager of the 22d of February arrangements, complains that "the President has not shown sufficient gratitude to those who have stood by him" Vallandingham said only a week ago that if the President did not begin at once to reward his new adherents with office he could not retain the support of a single Democrat three weeks longer How does the Herald editor who now supports Johnson with pretended earnestness and who supported Vallandigham in 1863 like the pass which things have come to? The Democrats of Oregon will not support the President a day after the election has transpired Like Vallandigham their great lord or they will forsake him when the "three weeks" are at an end

READ THIS!

The Grand Secretary of the "Old Guard" Confesses his Guilt.

Tom Caton for a long time the leading Democratic lawyer in Marion county, told the editor of this paper in the presence of the Clerk of the Court and others that he (Caton) was the man that organized the "Old Guard" society in Polk county! that the object of that society was to resist the arrest of persons by the United States authorities or in other words that they, the Old Guard would not allow their men to be arrested by the military for hauling down the American flag, rejoicing over the murder of President Lincoln, etc CATON FURTHER SAID THAT THEY WERE PREPARED TO RESIST THE UNITED STATES AUTHORITIES IN THIS MATTER AND THAT IF ANOTHER SUCH AN ARREST AS THAT OF FULKERSON HAD BEEN MADE, THEY WOULD HAVE RESISTED —Oregon Statesman

VOTERS OF OREGON the proof of Democratic conspiracy in Oregon, in behalf of treason is full, conclusive and overwhelming

If you are not ready yet to be represented in Congress and in the Executive and Legislative branches of the State Government, by convicted traitors, you must not vote for the Democratic candidates, for THEY WERE IMPLICATED IN THE TREASON CONFESSED BY TOM CATON, THE GRAND SECRETARY OF THE "OLD GUARD"

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN.

The Weekly Oregonian is published this morning. It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and California—a selection of the best articles appearing in The Daily Oregonian,—full and reliable news from the Mines, and the most copious commercial information published by any paper in the State.

The average amount of reading matter in the Weekly Oregonian is double that published by any other journal in Oregon; and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable, more especially in matters pertaining to Oregon interests.

☞Single copies 12½ cents, or $3 00 per year, to any part of the United States, or British Columbia.

Second Trip of the "'49."—The steamer '49, Captain Len. White, has made her second trip to La Porte, completing the round trip in seven days. Our information is dated Little Dalles, May 8th, and states that the steamer would start on the third trip the morning following, with fifty passengers and a few ton of merchandise. It is thought the steamer can carry 80 tons well enough, but thirty tons is a fair loading for the river. A gentleman at Little Dalles sends us the following: "From statistics of the Collector, 35 small boats and 10 canoes, with 310 males and 2 females, had passed the Fort for the upper Columbia. Including the 80 men on the first trip of the '49 about 500 persons had gone to the Big Bend country. There is a report current that about 500 men had gone by the way of Victoria, I, however, think it improbable, as the snow is from 10 to 20 feet deep on the mountains. No supplies of any kind had gone in the mines that way, and flour was rated at $1 per pound before the arrival of the '49. Bacon was $1.50 per pound. It is utterly impossible to get supplies by the way of New Westminster before the middle of June. I state this as a fact, based upon the appearance of snow on a low range of hills in this latitude. For the benefit of people going to the Big Bend mines, I can state that they will find the route by way of the Columbia river decidedly the best and cheapest. Thus we have from San Francisco to Portland $5, from Portland to Wallula $16, across the two ferries $2, (one ferry can be avoided by going by way of White Bluffs,) and from the Little Dalles (the lower landing place,) to within the center of the Big Bend mines, $25, making the whole passage from San Francisco but $50. Of course I do not mention board—however, do they pay board on the other side? People will find stopping places all the way from White Bluffs or Wallula to the landing. The country passed through from the Bluffs abounds in grass and water. At the Landing provisions, etc., can be got in abundance, and prices for goods are moderate. Flour sells from $14 to $18 per hundred; bacon at 50 and 55 cents per pound; beans 25 cents; sugar 40 cents; coffee 65 cents; bowls $1.50, picks the same, and everything else in proportion. People with pack animals can buy their outfits at either place."

California vs. Oregon.—Notwithstanding the "influence" in favor of the boasted Chico route to Owyhee from California, brought to bear by the Sacramento Union, the Red Bluffs [illegible], the California Steam Company, and other outside parties, yet counted in the ring, being exerted to the interest of John Mullan, not a mine or a man has arrived at Silver City by that route the present year, and our assayers are continually receiving bullion to be made into bricks for shipment to San Francisco by the ocean highway, where they will be landed in [illegible] of fourteen days from the time the rock was milled. Thirteen large silver bars, the second heavy shipment which has come through this spring to King, Myrick & Co., were shipped yesterday. We are willing that the California gentlemen should do their utmost to divert trade from its legitimate channels, by tooting their horns, [illegible] relations, carrying freight free on the Sacramento river, and all the title of that, but we wish candidly to assure them that their pet route will be a most complete fizzle within twelve months. The "Intelligent" Californian is likely to make mistakes—and it is pretty certain that one of the worst mistakes ever made by a California financier, will be found in the attempt to run a stage in opposition to the highways provided by nature from San Francisco to Owyhee, or farther, as is proposed—via. Yuba City to Virginia City. How long do these gentlemen calculate that it will take a man with his own treasure, to travel by the safer and more expeditious route, on steamboats and cars to Portland from the Montana mines? We apprehend they do not realize that before the proposed stages can be making trips from Star City, or Chico to Owyhee and Montana, we will be but few days from Montana, and have a steamship to complete the trip, in case parties wish to go farther, at all times in three days. It would be wise for them to investigate this matter before they invest too much in "Mullan stocks."

Dedication.—The time for the opening of Messrs. Lappeus & Knowles' new and splendidly arranged hall is drawing near. On the 30th of this month the Washington Guard, in connection the 14th U. S. Infantry Band, give a grand ball and promenade concert at this place, and [illegible] the well known good management of other affairs of this kind given by the Washington Guard, and the successful concerts of the 14th Infantry Band, we predict the pleasantest time that has yet taken place in Portland. We are informed by the committee having charge of the arrangements that the programme will be: [illegible] with select pieces of music from the Band between dances. The well known caterer, Mr. Prindle, has a supper room in the store under the hall. It is unnecessary to say more in this respect, as Prindle knows how to keep a hotel.

Schools in Procession.—Yesterday, the scholars of the Public Schools devoted a portion of the day to recreation, [illegible] well filled and having a picnic a short distance west of the city. The little ones of the school did not appear to enjoy the day as well as the older ones, on account of the fatigue attending the exercises. Notwithstanding this, however, the day passed off very pleasantly and to the entire satisfaction of all interested. There were in the procession, from the upper school, 110 boys and 96 girls; and from the central school, 124 boys and [illegible] girls, making a total of 468 scholars, under the charge of the Principal and ten teachers, attended by one of the school directors. Whole number of scholars at present enrolled in both schools, 753.

Treasure Shipments.—The treasure exported by the steamer yesterday morning, amounted to $39,500, shipped as follows, by

Ladd & Tilton	$22,500
Wells, Fargo & Co.	17,000
Total	$39,500

The steamer Montana carried away $9,500, of which amount [illegible] Ladd & Tilton shipped $6,500.

An Indian Raid.—The usually quiet First Ward of this city was the scene of a frightful surprise on Thursday evening, by an "unprotected" squaw, who forcibly entered the beer cellar of Michael Meyer, and caused him some trouble. Meyer attempted to make her "git" out, but instead of her going, she showed fight. During the melee the feminine aborigine lost a portion of her right ear, and for the recovery of damages inflicted, swore to a complaint setting forth "the situation." Upon trial before Justice Hoffman, Meyer was discharged.

Exports.—The steamer Orizaba yesterday morning cleared with a cargo of 500 tons, 240 of which consisted of flour, for San Francisco. The Montana left in the evening with the following cargo, for the same destination: 19 [illegible] hides, 35 gunnies bacon, 132 bbls cement, 21 cases butter, 550 sacks flour, 61 boxes fruit, 20 boxes eggs, 81½ bbls dried apples, 78 bales wool, 1 bale sheep pelts, 3 bales furs, 15 dry hides, 43 green hides, 4 calf skins, 29 bbls pitch and 20 cases turpentine.

Union Club.—Mr. Dolph made an excellent speech at the Club Room last evening, fully reviewing and refuting the charges made by Copperheads that the Union party is a negro suffrage or a negro equality party. Mr. Dolph made a triumphant vindication of the Civil Rights bill, showing that it was a measure dictated by justice and humanity, and in perfect accordance with the genius of the [illegible].

Beyond Competition.—Mr. J. Loryea, furniture dealer, 138 and 140, Front street, this morning advertises his stock for sale at prices below all competition. His motto is "In time of peace, prepare for war," and we presume he is intending to prepare for a vigorous campaign against all times.

Jobbing House.—Mr. J. B. Harker, late of Harker Brothers, has established a wholesale grocery and provision store at 124 First street, where he now offers to the trade, a large stock, warranted to be of the best quality. He will sell for cash at San Francisco prices and freight.

Furniture.—We call the attention of those in want of furniture, to the advertisement of Hurgren & Shindler. They are the oldest house here, in their line, and are the only parties in the State who import direct from the East, and are able to do justice to their customers.

Insurance.—Gov. Geo. Abernethy has been appointed agent for the North America Life Insurance Company of New York, and his advertisement may be found in our columns to-day. Capt. F. O. McCown is agent for the same company at Oregon City; F. A. Chenoweth at Corvallis, and P. W. Johnson at Eugene City.

Couch Engine Company No. 5.—We have been requested by Mr. P. Garrey, Secretary of Couch Engine Company No. 5, to announce that members will be expected to meet to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, at the Gem Garden.

Selling Out.—Rev. Mr. Rutledge advertises a number of valuable lots for sale, together with the houses upon them, a good library, household furniture, etc., etc. He is preparing to leave the city, and the sale must be made. See advertisement.

David Logan Speaks To-night.—Hon. David Logan will address the citizens of Portland to-night at the Willamette Theater. Everybody ought to go, and a big crowd will go, to hear him.

Left by the Montana.—Our fellow townsman Quincy A. Brooks, Esq., left last evening by the steamship Montana, to assume the duties of the office of Postal Agent on the Pacific coast, at San Francisco.

The Victoria Steamer.—A private despatch to Messrs. J. H. Perry & Co., states that the Fideliter will sail for Portland on the 25th.

Smoking Again.—Mount Hood was belching forth black smoke in large volumes, at different intervals of yesterday forenoon.

MOUNT HOOD.—Real art consists in portraying anything as near true to Nature as possible. Butman, Bierstadt, and others, for instance, have lately furnished the art-world with some excellent views of the above celebrated mountain peak. Photography is beyond doubt the only branch of art which actually depicts Nature. Just step into ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL'S GALLERY AND MUSEUM, 80 First St., and convince yourself of the truth of this statement. my24

Union Victory at Umatilla.

Umatilla, May 21st, 1866.

Editor Oregonian:

Dear Sir:—The meeting of the opposing candidates for Governor to discuss the issues of the two parties in our city to-day, resulted in a complete and triumphant success to the Union party, and in a thorough humiliation of the old war horse and standard-bearer of the Nationals in 1858, and the renowned Democracy of 1860. Hon. Geo. L. Woods most agreeably disappointed his most intimate friends by his logical, plain, and I may say brilliant, speech to-day. He certainly stands at the head of the public speakers of this State. Col. Kelly did not elicit applause from the audience but on one occasion during his hour and a half speech, and then when he said, "that the Union party were trying to make the white man as good as the negro." But whether the faint applause from the Democrats was for the negro or not, I was unable to understand. On the other hand, Mr. Woods was constantly enthusiastically cheered, and that too, by sensible men, who knew every word he spoke was honestly true. The Democracy will have to give it up, that the further Col. Kelly travels with Geo. L. Woods, the less becomes the number of his votes. They are growing beautifully less in this county. The Union party are gathering strength daily in this county, and if the Copperheads are not beaten, it will be owing to some mysterious, satanic strategy. JUSTICE.

An old soldier writes from the same place, next day:

Judge Woods scaled the fortifications of Richmond and thrashed the Colonel and his party so thoroughly that the boys—the audience—made the courthouse ring with cheer upon cheer. Such a complete victory I have never witnessed in my life, and I have seen some fighting. I am an old soldier, and have seen and heard much; but such a complete victory in argument, I never saw or heard before. The crowd pressed toward the speaker as if afraid of not hearing all he had to say. The enemy is sore to-day and have very little to say. They are silent and wear long faces and look as though just from a funeral.

The Ladies' Pronunciamento!—While protesting against all the old worthless Dentifrices now in the market, the Ladies, with one consent, have adopted the Sozodont as the one thing needful to insure the integrity of the teeth and fragrant breath.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—These Bitters are universally acknowledged to be a sure preventive and cure for Fever and Ague, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach, or any other like affection. Their effect upon the system is most miraculous, they give a healthy tone to the system, relieve all morbid matter and in fact thoroughly cleanse the system of all impurities. In no case has it been known to fail, but on the contrary, new virtues have been found in its use. To those afflicted with any of the above ills of the body, the "Bitters" are offered as a speedy and certain cure. Try them and form your own opinion.—Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere. my26 HODGE, CALEF, & Co., 97, Front St.

The reason why so many die with Consumption is because they neglect to use the proper remedy in season. When the system is first attacked with a cough, oppression of the chest, or seated pains in the breast, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will cause the phlegm to raise, heals the irritated parts and restores the system to health. HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS
READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of Health. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the Stomach, and sustain
The Nerves, the servants of the brain.
The Liver keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the inner man,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"Hostetter's Bitters," we reply,
In Health's supreme protection—try!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air,
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairie, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent;
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the surest antidote.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind—
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes,
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury,
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day,
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
Hostetter's Bitters—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea sickness, spasms and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households home, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too,
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet marshy ground,
To feeble wives of fragile mould,
To young and middle aged, and old,
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy,
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Rebellious Spirit of the South

The Democratic party [illegible] the North insists that the Southern people have abandoned all thoughts of hostility toward the Government and the North, that they are as loyal as the people of New York or Massachusetts, that they should at once be trusted with full political power in the States lately in revolt, and that their Senators and Representatives, whether loyal or not during the war, should at once be admitted into Congress to make laws for the people of the United States. Now the testimony that comes from the South does not warrant the conclusion that the people there have put away the spirit of rebellion, or that they are well disposed towards the Government and the loyal people of the country. On the contrary the entire weight of testimony is against this conclusion. Read the following evidence of Lieutenant Wilson Miller—A BROTHER-IN-LAW OF GOV. KELLY—given last February before the Reconstruction Committee. Lieut. Miller had just returned to Washington from Texas.

When our troops first went to western Texas we found the feeling generally to be that [illegible] of the war. [illegible] half-sullen adversity and the general disposition was to submit to the result. Since then I have noticed a gradual change in the manifestation of feeling, which was growing more and more independent, and at the time I left this class of people were becoming more and more outspoken in their bitterness against the United States government and more towards the [illegible] soldiers [illegible] in their intercourse with the [illegible] It appeared to be only restrained from breaking out into acts of violence by the majority of our number [illegible] the natural difficulties have occurred between them of our officers [illegible] the army who would give utterance to their feelings of hostility towards the United States government, but it was always met with such prompt chastisement on the part of officers present that it was hazardous to do so.

Question.—What is your opinion has changed the feeling there as you have stated?

Answer.—In my opinion the conduct of the government, of the administration, the facility with which pardons were reported to be granted, the general disposition of the administration to be lenient, and the impression which I have frequently heard spoken of by these people that they had strong friends in the North and in the government. The fact that they had strong party friends in the North appeared to be the principal ground of encouragement they had for supposing the rebellion would be overlooked, and that they would once more get the political power in the hands of the South.

I have been among the people considerably, particularly during the last three or four weeks of my stay in Texas, and their opinion was, in speaking of the withdrawal of our troops, that if they left altogether or were reduced to so small a number as not to afford a salutary protection to them they would not be able to remain. Their lives might not be in danger, but the insecurity of property would be such that it would not be worth while to stay there. They could not plant crops even around their own houses with safety. The sparseness of the population where there are no roads, furnished greater facilities for men to escape after committing outrages than any country I know of.

Question.—What is your opinion as to the necessity of the Freedmen's Bureau in that State?

Answer.—There are two or three grounds why I consider the Freedmen's Bureau an absolute necessity there as they are generally applicable everywhere, as much in the South as there. I think it is necessary for the purpose of furnishing labor to those sections where labor is required, and of furnishing the laborers who seek it with employment. It is necessary also, as a protection to the freedmen against imposition on the part of their employers, whether southern men or northern men. I think there is as much and perhaps more disposition in some neighborhoods on the part of northern adventurers who have leased or purchased plantations to take advantage of the negro than from any other quarter. Without some such institution as the Freedmen's Bureau to protect the freedman in his rights, his chance for justice with either party would be very small. As a protection against outrages from loyal whites it is more or less a necessity, according to the state of public sentiment in the particular neighborhood. There is a class of lawless men there who have nothing to lose, who are generally the instrument of committing outrages. Without the presence of the Freedmen's Bureau and an armed force to back it, I do not think the life of a freedman coming in the way of one of the disbanded rebel soldiers of the class I refer to, would be worth a cent.

The testimony of Gen George A. Custar, always a Democrat, a West Point graduate, and a soldier in the old army, is of the same character. He has lately been in command of the cavalry in Louisiana and Texas.

Question (by Senator Williams). What would be the condition of loyal men in Texas now in case the military protection now afforded were withdrawn from the State?

Answer. I would not consider it safe for a loyal man to remain in Texas, or at least in that portion I have visited after the troops were withdrawn. I have within my possession letters from prominent Union men in the State, saying that, if the troops were to be withdrawn, they wished to be informed of it, for the purpose of making arrangements to leave when the troops did; that it would be unsafe and unwise for them to remain after the troops were withdrawn. Even now there is no friendly feeling, and very little intercourse, between the loyal and disloyal portion of the inhabitants. The feeling of hostility towards loyal men is carried to such an extent that a loyal man engaged in business receives no patronage except from loyal men.

When I entered the State last summer I found the condition of the people, as regards their sentiments and intentions towards the general government, to be as satisfactory as any loyal man could wish, so far as it was observable. They made use of no expressions hostile to the government, or against government officials, or against the policy of the government. On the contrary, they regarded the result of the war as final—no appeal to be made from it—and were willing to conform to any conditions the general government might see fit to impose. And I am confident that, especially their leaders, those who had borne a prominent part in the rebellion, were in expectation of being dealt with in accordance with the extreme provisions of law. Those of them possessing much property believed their property would be confiscated, and they also thought that at least the leaders would be tried and executed for treason. So long as the policy of the government towards the Southern States seemed undeveloped or unknown, the most submissive feeling was everywhere prevalent. Those who had been engaged in rebellion, particularly those who had borne a prominent part, realized, without being told, that they had forfeited every right, even to that of life. They regarded the course of the government as magnanimous in the extreme, and far more generous than they had reason to expect. After it was seen what policy was to be pursued towards the southern States generally, they assumed a more defiant position, assailed the government, assailed the measures of the government, denounced the system of provisional governments which had been established in the South, were opposed to the location of troops in their midst, and were opposed to the location of agents of the Freedmen's Bureau. And this feeling continued to grow and manifest itself more strongly day by day. I think their opposition to the government and disloyalty is as openly visible and as plainly manifest now as it was in 1861.

Question. State your opinion as to whether the lenient policy which has been pursued towards the rebels has been beneficial to that country, or otherwise.

Answer. In my opinion it has been very detrimental not only to that portion of the country, but to the entire country, and more immediately to the interests of the Union and the Union men of the South. It has certainly produced one result not intended nor contemplated. It has led the people of the South to forget the enormity of the crime they have committed by engaging in rebellion, and they are now endeavoring to school themselves to the belief that they are the party aggrieved and the general government the aggressor. To such an extent have they thus succeeded in educating themselves that I have no doubt had they the power they would arraign the government for suppressing the rebellion.

Question. Is there as much freedom among the Union men now in the expression of their views there as there was at the time you went there? And if not, what is the reason for it?

Answer. In many parts of Texas Union men dare not express their sentiments as regards loyalty to the general government. Their lives would be endangered if [illegible]. Union men are being murdered there. [illegible] at least murders were occurring constantly before I left, and I think were on the increase.

Major General George H Thomas, the hero of Nashville and Chickamauga, a native of Virginia, and for twenty years a Democrat, said in his recent evidence before the Committee:

Many of them, especially those who were officers in the rebel army, say that in case of a foreign war they would throw their swords into the scale against the United States.

And Major General Grierson, another old Democrat, who has been stationed in Alabama and Mississippi since the close of the war, thus testifies:

I think that instead of growing more willing to accept the situation, they are showing more intense feeling of bitterness to the Government. I speak of the feeling more particularly [illegible] they do not appear to think they have done anything wrong; their only regret seems to be that they had not the means to carry out their designs.

And those are the men whom the Copperheads think oppressed because they are not permitted to kill white Unionists and free negroes, persecute all persons who are loyal, and elect one another to Congress!

A SORE THROAT.—Some time ago Governor Gillis [illegible] the Rev. Joe Smith to join with him in the canvass on largue political question before the people. The Reverend demagogue replied that his bad [illegible] throat and would not be able to speak any more during the canvass. Yet this hypocrite has been travelling over the country and haranguing the people ever since. The further he got from the Governor the better his throat became, until he could hardly win any guerrilla that ever performed [illegible] service in the [illegible] It may [illegible] one of the [illegible] false [illegible] his throat a little at first, but its steadfast staying [illegible] consequence [illegible] there should be [illegible] his sophistries and [illegible] Court House last Wednesday evening as his [illegible] —Eugene Journal.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, May 25th 1866

[illegible]

Our latest telegraphic dispatches contain matters of startling [illegible] from Europe which excites considerable [illegible] [illegible] heavy trade of this country for [illegible]

[illegible] The prevailing [illegible] When the money [illegible] we shall [illegible] not [illegible] for all [illegible] transactions [illegible] with [illegible] further increase [illegible] in industry.

The [illegible] during the [illegible] as follows: Steamer Vera Neuda [illegible] steamer Orizaba [illegible] Steamer [illegible] from San Francisco [illegible] first trip [illegible] Wednesday evening. The steamer cleared [illegible] with [illegible] 210 tons [illegible] The [illegible] will [illegible] with an average [illegible] for the [illegible] outward voyage.

The Oregon Iron Works [illegible] of [illegible] six miles [illegible] the [illegible] works. The Superintendent, Mr Wilber [illegible] employed [illegible] for the furnaces. The company [illegible] with [illegible] success thus far, and their plans of operation are more promising than was at first expected.

The erection of these works will be of incalculable benefit to Oregon, as one of the important elements [illegible] progress of development which must constitute the future wealth of the entire coast.

A Pacific Rolling Mill Company has also recently been incorporated in California with a capital of $1,000,000. The business contemplated is the smelting, rolling, manufacturing and forging of railroad and other iron. The deposits of iron in Oregon must necessarily contribute somewhat to these last named works.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

PORTLAND, May 19th 1866

Trade for the period under review has been active in most branches of business. The markets are now well stocked, and merchants generally feel a greater confidence in the future. The influences which have been brought to bear upon the markets of the East and California, are being felt here as well, and we have many important changes in prices to note, all tending downwards.

Spring business has been very backward, but at present the wholesale and jobbing trade is good.

Domestic Produce Market.

PORTLAND, May 25th 1866

Flour is [illegible] Imperial Standard and [illegible] of that class are now offered at $6 per barrel. We believe the city brand of Mr Vaughn is still held at $6 for higher per barrel. No Brooklyn is in the market. Mission, Harrisburg and like brands may be [illegible] at $6 per barrel. A shipment of 240 tons by the Oriflamme is inclined to cause a better feeling regarding the flour market. Grain is without material change.

The [illegible] market is also unsettled and our [illegible] would be nominal.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the Lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

THAT OLD GREENBACK CASE

I am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes
at Par, and have been since Dec 17 1864, for the rent of my Handsome Brick
Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets. I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that

JACOB MAYER

Leased the building of me Feb 17, 1862 for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in use and it was understood the terms were Coin. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE!

making less than two fifths of the real amount that Mayer was to pay. He had secured the [illegible] at very [illegible] rates, and [illegible] to comply with his contract
[illegible] and pay in Coin would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he is, that he takes such an undue advantage of the times to obtain for himself
[illegible] LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have an interest in such costly buildings
as the one referred to above
